

Legal Info for 12/12 from Elk Law Krewe Legal Hotline: 503-902-5340 Call this number to report who is actually arrested; call after you're released from jail if you want legal support; call with questions or to report evidence and witnesses. Each affinity group should designate one or two people to be your legal supports. The legal supports should: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Get everyone in the group to fill out the arrestee intake sheet 2) Hold this information and keep it safe 3) Have a notebook, pen, and photo or video camera ready w/ batteries charged 4) Document events and any police misconduct with multimedia and in writing 5) If there's a risk of arrest, the legal support should stand aside if possible and avoid arrest in order to provide jail support 6) If someone arrested has a medical need, you will need to advocate for them. The number of the Justice Center (downtown jail) is 503-988-3689 7) Find out which jail or other facility arrestees are taken to and go there to offer transport, food, and support on release 	Legal Info for 12/12 from Elk Law Krewe Legal Hotline: 503-902-5340 Call this number to report who is actually arrested; call after you're released from jail if you want legal support; call with questions or to report evidence and witnesses. Each affinity group should designate one or two people to be your legal supports. The legal supports should: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Get everyone in the group to fill out the arrestee intake sheet 2) Hold this information and keep it safe 3) Have a notebook, pen, and photo or video camera ready w/ batteries charged 4) Document events and any police misconduct with multimedia and in writing 5) If there's a risk of arrest, the legal support should stand aside if possible and avoid arrest in order to provide jail support 6) If someone arrested has a medical need, you will need to advocate for them. The number of the Justice Center (downtown jail) is 503-988-3689 7) Find out which jail or other facility arrestees are taken to and go there to offer transport, food, and support on release
Legal Info for 12/12 from Elk Law Krewe Legal Hotline: 503-902-5340 Call this number to report who is actually arrested; call after you're released from jail if you want legal support; call with questions or to report evidence and witnesses. Each affinity group should designate one or two people to be your legal supports. The legal supports should: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Get everyone in the group to fill out the arrestee intake sheet 2) Hold this information and keep it safe 3) Have a notebook, pen, and photo or video camera ready w/ batteries charged 4) Document events and any police misconduct with multimedia and in writing 5) If there's a risk of arrest, the legal support should stand aside if possible and avoid arrest in order to provide jail support 6) If someone arrested has a medical need, you will need to advocate for them. The number of the Justice Center (downtown jail) is 503-988-3689 7) Find out which jail or other facility arrestees are taken to and go there to offer transport, food, and support on release 	Legal Info for 12/12 from Elk Law Krewe Legal Hotline: 503-902-5340 Call this number to report who is actually arrested; call after you're released from jail if you want legal support; call with questions or to report evidence and witnesses. Each affinity group should designate one or two people to be your legal supports. The legal supports should: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Get everyone in the group to fill out the arrestee intake sheet 2) Hold this information and keep it safe 3) Have a notebook, pen, and photo or video camera ready w/ batteries charged 4) Document events and any police misconduct with multimedia and in writing 5) If there's a risk of arrest, the legal support should stand aside if possible and avoid arrest in order to provide jail support 6) If someone arrested has a medical need, you will need to advocate for them. The number of the Justice Center (downtown jail) is 503-988-3689 7) Find out which jail or other facility arrestees are taken to and go there to offer transport, food, and support on release